

SENATOR WITHEM: I think many of the stations do require that information, particularly on the longer ones. The sticky problem is like the 15-second or second radio (interruption).

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: But if I heard an ad and wondered who was...where that was coming from, I could simply (interruption).

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes, the Plattsmouth Station runs an ad saying, your state senator is a real jerk, then you can call them and find out who it is that has that opinion of you.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes. Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Any other discussion? Seeing none, all in favor of the adoption of the committee amendments vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Please record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of the committee amendments.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The committee amendments are adopted. Senator Withem, on the bill.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes. Once again, the debate on the amendments and the committee amendments has fairly adequately explained the bill. It, first of all, deals with, now in its amended form, a compromise manner in which disclaimers for radio and television advertising will be handled. The second thing it does that hasn't been mentioned is it changes the requirement of having your treasurer's name and resident address on campaign materials. That has caused some sort of difficulty in understanding and some problems with some people. The requirement now is that the name of the committee and the committee's address will be on the disclosure. And it also accomplishes, as Senator Baack has adequately explained now with the committee amendments, dealing with the troubling problems of putting disclaimers on balloons, pencils, other sorts of things that it's clearly difficult to put...put the disclaimer on. It makes it a little easier for us to comply with this old disclaimer provision. I would urge you to advance the bill.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Any other discussion? Seeing none, all in favor of the advancement of the bill to E & R Initial vote aye, opposed nay. Please record.
